- 2.1 In this Bylaw the singular includes the plural and the plural includes the singular.
- 2.2 Words referring to any district, locality, place, person, office, officer, functionary, party or thing mean each district, locality, place, person, office, officer, functionary, party or thing, to whom or to which the provision applies.
- 2.3 Every Schedule to this Bylaw forms part of this Bylaw and if provided for in the bylaw text may be altered from time to time in accordance with the Act.
- 2.4 For the purposes of the Bylaw the word 'shall' refers to practices that are mandatory for compliance with this Bylaw, while the word 'should' refers to practices which are advised or recommended.

3.0 FEES

3.1 The Council may prescribe fees to be charged to any person doing or proposing to do anything or to cause any condition to exist, under the provisions of the Local Government Act 2002 or any other enactment that requires a certificate, authority, approval, permit, or consent from, or inspection by the Council.

3.2 Fees payable are as specified in Schedule 1 to this chapter of the Bylaw if the matter is provided for:

(a) in this Bylaw; or

(b) under any other enactment.

The setting of any fees or charges shall be in accordance with section 150 of the Act.

3.3 Where a fee has been paid under any provision of this Bylaw for a service that has not been given, the Council may provide a refund, a remission, or waiver of any such fee, or portion of it as the Council may determine.

3.4 If, following a request for payment, any due fee remains unpaid, the certificate, authority, approval, permit or consent for which the fee was required, shall have no effect.

4.0 LICENCES

4.1 Any person doing or proposing to do anything or to cause any condition to exist for which a licence or approval from the Council is required under this Bylaw, shall first obtain a licence or approval from the Council or any Authorised Officer.

4.2 Every application for a licence shall be accompanied by the relevant fee prescribed from time to time by the Council under this Bylaw. If:

(a) the application is declined the fee shall be refunded, less any reasonable processing costs.

(b) following a request for payment, any licence fee due, remains unpaid, then the licence shall immediately cease to have effect.

4.3 No application for a licence or approval from the Council or any Authorised Officer, and no payment of or receipt for any fee paid in connection with such application, shall confer any right authority or immunity from prosecution on the person making such application or payment.

4.4 Any licence is deemed to be issued in compliance with this Bylaw if it is issued by an Authorised Officer, and every licence is subject to such conditions as may be imposed.

4.5 Unless otherwise provided, a licence issued under this Bylaw is not transferable.

4.6 Every application for a licence shall be in such form as may be prescribed from time to time by the Council.

5.0 SUSPENSION AND REVOCATION OF LICENCES

5.1 Unless this Bylaw provides otherwise the Council may immediately revoke any licence or suspend the licence for any specified time if the licence holder is convicted of any offence relating to suitability to hold the licence.

- 5.2 Should it be brought to the notice of the Council, that the holder of any licence granted under this bylaw:
- a) has acted or is acting in a manner contrary to the true intent and meaning of this bylaw; or
  - b) has failed to comply with any of the conditions of the licence; or
  - c) is in any way unfit to hold the licence; or
  - d) the premises for which the licence was issued are being used for any purpose other than that stated in the licence; or
  - e) the premises for which the licence was issued are being are in a state of disrepair contrary to the terms of the licence; or
  - f) the bylaw is not being properly observed; then the Council may by notice in writing call upon the licence holder to appear before the Council and give reasons why the licence should not be revoked or suspended.

- 5.3 The Council may, if it considers the allegations correct or if there is no appearance by the holder of a licence, revoke or suspend the licence for any specified time.

6.0 DISPENSATIONS

- 6.1 The Council may grant a dispensation from full compliance with any provision in this Bylaw where, in the opinion of the Council or any Authorised Officer, any provision would needlessly or injuriously affect any person or business or needlessly result in inconvenience or loss to any person or business without any corresponding benefit to the public.
- 6.2 Any application for dispensation shall be in writing and shall give full details of the relief sought and the reasons for the application, including supporting information in the form of reports and diagrams where appropriate.
- 6.3 The Council or any Authorised Officer may either refuse or grant the application for dispensation, subject to such conditions as considered appropriate.

7.0 AUTHORISED OFFICERS

- 7.1 For any of the purposes of this Bylaw, any Authorised Officer or other person duly appointed, or authorised by the Council in that behalf, may at all reasonable times enter upon any land, building or premises in order to carry out an inspection and may execute any works or actions authorised under or pursuant to this Bylaw.
- 7.2 All Authorised Officers appointed by the Council under or for the purpose of any repealed bylaw and holding office at the time of the coming into operation of this Bylaw shall be deemed to have been appointed under this Bylaw.
- 7.3 Any person commits an offence against this Bylaw by impersonating any person who is charged with the administration of the Bylaw or any part of it.
- 7.4 No civil or criminal liability shall attach to an Authorised Officer as a result of proper performance of authorised duties.

8.0 BREACHES

8.1 Every person commits a breach of this bylaw who:

- (a) does, or is involved in doing, causes to be done, knowingly permits or suffers to be done, anything that is contrary to any provisions of this Bylaw.
- (b) fails to do, or knowingly permits or suffers to remain undone, anything which that person was required to do under this Bylaw;
- (c) Refuses or neglects to comply with any notice or direction duly given to that person under this Bylaw within the time period specified in that notice or direction; or
- (d) Obstructs or hinders any Authorised Officer of the Council in the performance of his or her duties under this Bylaw.

8.2 The continued existence of any work or thing in a state, or the intermittent repetition of any action contrary to any of the said provisions of this Bylaw, shall be deemed to be a continuing breach for the purposes of this Bylaw.

9.0 SERVING OF ORDERS AND NOTICES

9.1 Except where otherwise expressly provided for in any Act, where it is provided by this Bylaw, that an order may be made upon or notice be given to any person, or any notice is required by this Bylaw to be given or sent to any person, the order or notice shall be delivered to that person either personally or by sending it to the persons last known address, place of abode, or business by messenger or post or by electronic mail [provided a second copy is immediately sent by post to the last known postal address].

9.2 If a person on whom notice is to be served is absent from New Zealand, the order or notice may be sent to that person's agent instead of that person.

9.3 If a person on whom notice is to be served is not known, or is absent from New Zealand, and has no known agent in New Zealand, and the order or notice relates to any land or building, the order or notice, addressed to the owner or occupier of such building or land, as the case may require, may be served on the occupant of that property, or left with some person residing therein, or, if there is no occupier may be put up on some conspicuous part of the land or building. It shall not be necessary in any such notice to name the occupier or the owner of the land or building.

9.4 Any notice or direction given under this Bylaw shall state the time within which the remedial action is to be carried out, and that time may be extended from time to time.

10.0 PENALTIES FOR BREACH OF BYLAWS

10.1 Every person who commits a breach of any of the provisions of this Bylaw commits an offence and is liable to:

- (a) the penalty set out in section 238 of the Act; or
- (b) any other penalty where another enactment specifies the penalty for a breach of the Bylaw.

10.2 In accordance with section 162 of the Act, the Council may apply to the District Court for an injunction to restrain a continuing breach of this Bylaw.

10.3 Breaches of any part of this Bylaw shall be Infringement Offences as may be scheduled under regulations under section 259 (b) of the Act.

11.0 REMOVAL BY THE COUNCIL OF WORKS EXECUTED CONTRARY TO THE BYLAW

- 11.1 Where a notice under the Bylaw has been properly served and has not been complied with to the satisfaction of an Authorised Officer, the Council, or any Authorised Officer or an agent of the Council, may demolish, remove, or alter, any work, material or thing erected or being in contravention of any part of this Bylaw. The Council may act under section 163 and for seizure of property under sections 164, 165, 167, and 168, of the Act.
- 11.2 The Council may recover from any person responsible for the breach of any part of this Bylaw, all expenses incurred by it in connection with such demolition, removal or alteration. This shall include the cost of debt collecting and legal fees.
- 11.3 The exercise of an authority under Clauses 11.1 and 11.2, shall not relieve any person from liability for any penalty for erecting or permitting the continued existence of any such work, material or thing.
- 11.4 If any breach of this Bylaw is such that public health, or safety considerations, or risk of consequential damage to Council assets is such that a delay would create unacceptable results, the Council may take immediate action to rectify the breach and recover all reasonable costs as set out in Clause 11.2
